

SETTING UP DEVICES

Internet Matters

Internet Matters is an industry-led site on how to set up privacy controls on devices. It has really useful information on a range of areas and provides information on related to the ages of children. It also provides guides on areas such as social media, gaming and cyberbullying.

<https://www.internetmatters.org/>

VIDEO GAMES

Taming Gaming

This is a video games database which looks at different video games and whether they are age appropriate for children.

<https://www.taminggaming.com/>

SAFEGUARDING

THINK U KNOW

Education site from the Child Exploitation Online Protection Centre (CEOP) which is part of the National Crime Agency.

<https://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/>

THIS SHEET IS
(C) THE E-SAFETY
OFFICE 2021

www.esafetyoffice.co.uk

As an expert in online safety for the past 11 years, the most important way to support your child is to take to them about their online lives.

Take steps to minimise screen time by setting limits on devices and rules about age appropriate games and apps.

Talk to them about online risks such as sharing private information.

Ensure they they can talk to a trusted adult if they feel worried.

Follow my Online Safety Tips on Twitter

